Numb. 9735.

The London Gazette.

published by Authority.

From Saturday October 29, to Tuesday November 1, 1757.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 31ſt Day of October, 1757,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS upon Intelligence being received, that the Plague was broke out at Liſbon, the Right Honourable William Pitt, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in order to prevent the Infection being brought into theſe Kingdoms, by the Arrival of any Pacquet Boats from thence, iſſued an Order to the Poſtmaſters General, directing, amongſt other Things, that in Caſe any Pacquet Boat ſhould arrive at Falmouth from Liſbon, no Mail, Letter, Perſon, or Thing, of any Kind whatſoever, ſhould be permitted to come, or be ſent on ſhore till further Orders; but before the ſaid Order could reach Falmouth, a Liſbon Pacquet arrived at that Port, and landed her Mail, which was brought up from thence to Staines, where it was ſtopped and properly ſecured. —— And whereas His Majeſty was pleaſed, by His Order in Council of the 28th of this Inſtant, to direct, That one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State ſhould forthwith iſſue an Order to the Poſtmaſters General, directing them to take the ſaid Mail immediately under their Charge, and to cauſe the ſame to be opened, and the Letters contained therein to be inſpected, effectual Care being firſt taken to purify the ſaid Letters, by ſuch proper Methods as are uſually practiſed here or in other Countries; and that the ſaid Mail ſhould remain at Staines, and not be brought forward until it ſhould have undergone the Purifications as aforeſaid: And that after the ſaid Poſtmaſters ſhould have inſpected the ſaid Mail, they were thereby required to report to His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council the State of Health at Liſbon, as it ſhould appear to them, upon ſuch Inſpection, to have been at the Time of the Writing of the ſaid Letters, in order to receive ſuch further Directions, as His Majeſty in Council ſhould judge proper, with regard to the iſſuing and delivering of the ſaid Letters, as well as with Regard to the Admiſſion of any other Things brought on Board the ſaid Pacquet. And whereas in Purſuance of the aforeſaid Order in Council, the ſaid Poſtmaſters General have this Day reported, That they have cauſed the ſaid Mail to be opened at Staines, and the Letters therein to be inſpected, after having firſt taken ſuch effectual Care to purify the Letters, as to them appeared moſt adviſeable for that Purpoſe: And that by the beſt Information they are able to procure from the Inſpection of the ſaid Letters, as alſo from thoſe they have received from their Agents at Liſbon and Falmouth, as well as from the Maſter of the Pacquet Boat, who had this Mail in Charge, they do not find the leaſt Notice taken of any Plague, or any Suſpicion of a Contagious Diſtemper being at Liſbon at the Time this Pacquet was diſpatched from thence, and therefore the ſaid Poſtmaſters General deſire to receive ſuch further Directions as His Majeſty in Council ſhall judge proper to give with regard to the Iſſuing and Delivery of the Letters, as well as with regard to the Admiſſion of any other Things brought on Board the ſaid Pacquet.——His Majeſty taking the ſaid Report into His Royal Conſideration, is pleaſed, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That the Right Honourable William Pitt, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, do iſſue an Order to the Poſtmaſters General, to cauſe all the Letters contained in the ſaid Mail to be forthwith iſſued and delivered.——And that with regard to all ſuch Orders as have been iſſued for the Stopping of the ſaid Pacquet or Mail, or of any Ships or Veſſels from Liſbon——His Majeſty is further pleaſed to order, That the ſame be, and they are hereby revoked and diſcharged. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, The Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, The Maſter General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 20th Day of September, 1757,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of Auguſt laſt, For paying the reſpective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and alſo to all Able-bodied Landmen, who ſhould voluntarily enter themſelves in His Majeſty's Royal Navy; and likewiſe for paying the Rewards to Perſons diſcovering Seamen who ſhould conceal themſelves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, ſhould be continued to be paid for ſome Time longer; His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty

[Price Three-Pence.]

Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Fifteenth Day of November next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Fifteenth Day of November next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Navy Office, October 8, 1757.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Tuesday the 15th of next Month, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, Commissioner Hughes will expose to Sale at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, Several Parcels of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Colours, Kersey, Hammaccoes, Nail Bags, Nets with Leads and Corks, Hand Lanthorns, Cast Iron in Pots and Furnices, decaid Locks, old Rope, Ditto in Paper Stuff, White Ocham, &c. which are laid a part in 57 Lots, where such Persons as are willing to be Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing them, at any Time in the working Hours of the said Yard, till the Day of Sale: And as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent. or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by the Persons who shall purchase the said Stores, all Persons that shall attend the said Sale are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpose; and unless the Stores so purchased shall be paid for and taken away at the End of Forty Days after the Day of Sale, the Deposit shall be forfeited and become the Property of the Crown.

Navy-Office, October 17, 1757.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January 1757, to the 30th of June following, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Tuesday the 1st of next Month, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, and continued the two following Days, beginning at the same Hour; That all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Victualling Office, Oct. 31, 1757.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, to pay Interest and Non-Interest Bills, registered on the Course of the Victualling in the Month of May 1757, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally impowered to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment.

Office for Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for Exchanging Prisoners of War, Oct. 24, 1757.

Whereas Escapes of Prisoners of War in this Kingdom, as well from among those confined in Prison as those permitted to reside upon their Parole of Honour in Towns assigned for that Purpose, have of late been very frequent, but chiefly among the latter, and there being great Reason to apprehend that they are assisted by other People, and concealed till Opportunities offer for their getting home; The Commissioners for taking Care of sick and wounded Seamen, and for exchanging Prisoners of War, do give this publick Notice, that they will prosecute, to the utmost Rigour of the Law, all such Persons who shall be aiding and assisting to His Majesty's Enemies, by helping Prisoners of War to escape, or who shall harbour or conceal them, or be in any wise instrumental to their leaving the Places of their Confinement, or those where they may be permitted to reside upon Parole, or who shall facilitate their leaving the Kingdom: And in order to come at the Knowledge of such Offenders, the said Commissioners do hereby promise, that they will sufficiently gratify any Person or Persons who shall inform them of their Names and Places of Abode, and the Circumstances necessary to found a Prosecution upon. They will likewise gratify any Persons who may apprehend Prisoners that have escaped, and pay all reasonable Expences attending the same.

British Linen Office, Edinburg, Oct. 22, 1757.

The Court of Directors hereby give Notice, that a General Quarterly Court of said Company will be held here, the first Monday of December next, in Terms of the Charter.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Tartar, who were actually on board her at the taking the Prince de Soubise, a French Prize from Martinico, on the 28th of January 1757, that they will be paid their respective Shares of said Prize, on her Arrival at Plymouth from her present Cruize; and the Shares not then demanded will be paid at the King's Head Tavern in Fenchurch Street, the last Wednesday in every Month for three Years to come.
